

Χριστούγεννα

English by S. Takis

Traditional

Moderato

Στή γω-νιά μας κόκ-κι - νο τ'α - ναμ - μέ - νο τζά - κι. Τού - φες χιό - νι Sti ghio-nia mas kok-ki - no t'a - nam - me - no tza - ki. Tou - fes chio-ni In the cor-ner fi - re - place glow the em-bers red and still, while out-side the πέ - φτου - νε στο πα-ρα-θυ - ρά - κι. Ό-λο α-πό - ψε ξά - γρυ - πνο pe - ftou - ne sto pa-ra-thi - ra - ki. O - lo a - po - pse xa - ghri - pno snow-flakes fall, soft-ly on the win-dow sill. All the vil-lage keeps a watch μέ - νει το χω - ριό και κτυ - πά Χρι - στού - γεν - να το καμ - πα - να - ριό.

me - ni to cho - rio ke kti - pa Chri - stou - ghen - na to kam - ba - na - rio.
in the cold moon - light, church bells toll the glad - some news: Christ is born this night.

Έ - λα Ε - σύ, π'Αρ - χάγ - γε - λοι σ'α - νυ - μνούν' α - πό - ψε. Πά - ρε α - πο την
E - la E - si, p'Ar - chan - ge - li s'a - ni - mnoun' a - po - pse. Pa - re a - po tin You whom all the an - gels praise, come to us this ho - ly night. We shall cut the πίτ - τα μας πού εύ - ω - διά, και κό - ψε. Έ - λα κ'η γω - νί - τσα μας pit - ta mas pou ev - o - dhia, ke ko - pse. E - la k'i gho - ni - tsa mas Christ - mas bread, join us for this sweet de - light. Near the hearth so warm and bright, καρ - τε - ρεί να'ρ - θείς. Σού - στρω - σα, Χρι - στού - λη μου, για να ζε - στα - θείς.

kar - te - ri na' - r - this, sou - stro - sa, Chri - stou - li mou, ghia na ze - sta - this.
we have made your bed, where, my Christ Child, you may lay down your sleep - y head.